Arrives in Britain

LONDON (R. ou to r). — A

U.A.R. trade mission of nine members and eight advisers arrived here by air on Tuesday from Cairo on a 10-day official visit. For studying prospects of iscreasing trade with Britain.

The mission is led by Mohamed Rouchdy, Chairman and Managing Director of the Egyptian Bank.

"The Times" yesterday said that Egypt now feared she was becoming too dependent on the Communist world, and submitted that this was one of the sussees why Egypt was looking towards the West in the shaping of her trade policy.
